

Racial and Ethnic Minority Women in the Health Professions Roundtable

April 24, 2006
2:30–5:00 pm

Radisson Airport Hotel Providence
2081 Post Road
Warwick, RI 02886

Please join us for a statewide roundtable to address health disparities. This roundtable will focus specifically on gender and racial disparities in the health professions.

We will be discussing:

- The representation of racial and ethnic minority women in health professions.
- Enrollment and retention issues for racial and ethnic minority women.
- The impact of the aging of the region's population on gender, race, and ethnicity in the health workforce.
- Special issues facing immigrants.

Please RSVP by April 17 to:

Elizabeth Castellano
Rhode Island Department of Health
401-222-2901
Elizabeth.Castellano@health.ri.gov

This roundtable is part of a regional initiative of the Center for Women in Politics and Public Policy at the University of Massachusetts Boston's McCormack Graduate School of Policy Studies and is supported by the Region I Office of Women's Health